

December 10, 2018

Today is an A Day

Today is Dewey Decimal System Day

- Chicken Patty on a Hamburger Bun
- Potato Smiles
- Pineapple Tidbits
- Fresh Fruit & Veggies

All 7th and 8th Graders who are planning on skiing or snowboarding or who are interested in learning how to and want to bomb the hill with Mr. Rohlring and their friends, there will be an informational meeting in the Mr. Rohlring's room Wednesday after announcements.

ATTENTION: 7th and 8th Grade Girls interested in playing basketball this coming season.

The mandatory pre-season organizational meeting will be held this Wednesday, December 12th in the STEP Room during Advisory Period. Important information and necessary forms will be presented and explained. Questions or concerns should be addressed to Coaches Harrison and Patterson for 7th Grade or Coach McCluskey for 8th Grade.

ATTENTION: ALL 7TH AND 8TH GRADE BOYS BASKETBALL PLAYERS

NO Practice today due to the concert in the gym.

Come join us Today in Ms. High's room after school until 4:40 for our first African American History Academic Challenge Meeting: This is a fun and challenging way for students to expand their knowledge of African American History in highly competitive local and national competitions. Students who participate in this club will meet one time per week after school.

- Students will be coached after school by Badger Ridge Staff
- Students receive a text to study African American History
- Students will compete in Verona, Dane County, and possibly Nationally
- Top teams will receive a cash stipend

See Ms. High or Mr. Rogeberg with further questions. See you after school!

What are you doing on Tuesday and Thursday right after school? We have an idea for you! Stop by the bake sale put on by Mrs. Worley's advisory! All treats are just a dollar! All profits go toward adopting an acre of the rainforest. Hope to see you there!

Attention all students interested in Drama Club: our third activity, Forensics, begins this week. Forensics is a speech and drama event where students choose from one of 16 different categories. Choices include reading poetry, giving an informational speech, putting together a television news broadcast, performing a short play, and many more! Forensics is open to all middle school students, even if you haven't participated in Drama Club this year. The informational meeting will be Thursday from 3:45 to 4:30 in the Step Room. See Mr. Campbell if you have questions.

Anyone like jolly ranchers? If so, Ms.Wirth and Mr.Jackson's advisory has added a new update to the toy drive! Come into the front office with a new toy or item from the papers hanging up around the school and get 1 raffle ticket per toy you bring in. Every morning, we will pick one winner to receive a baggie of jolly ranchers for your donation! Good luck and thank you!

7th graders interested in Trees for Tomorrow, remember your applications are due tomorrow. Please turn them in to Mrs. Harrison before the end of the day tomorrow. Let me know if you have any questions or get a new form today if you need one!

Support Badger Ridge and Core Knowledge middle Schools on Wednesday night by eating pizza from Papa Murphy's. A portion of each sale will go to the Badger Ridge/Core Knowledge Booster Club.