

December 17, 2019

Today is an A Day

Today is national Maple Syrup Day

Today's menu is:

- Waffles served with mini graham cracker grahams
- Cheese Omelette
- Assorted Juice Cups
- Fresh Fruit & Veggies

We are having a GSA meeting today after announcements in the step room. Students in each grade level are welcome to join us. Students need to check in with their advisory teacher before they come to this meeting.

All Skiers and Snowboarders- sign up for our first ski trip on January 10, is now open. Remember to go through the policies page with your parents in order to participate in ski club.

If you are interested in participating in Forensics, please sign up in the Badger Ridge office. Forensics will start after winter break.

Wrestlers should be dismissed at 2:40 for their final meet of the season in DeForest.

•

All 7th grade girls interested in playing basketball for the school team this year should meet in the lunchroom tomorrow immediately following the announcements. If you have any questions please see Mr. Jackson.

This is a reminder that there is a science Olympiad meeting in mr. Ruel's room after school. Be there!

Today there will be circles of support for 6th grade Black girls. Participating students need to go to Ms. High's room in 401 after announcements.

Remember to buy a candy cane! It is the last week to buy them so stop by the table in the cafeteria. Profits will go to the children's hospital and our winter dance that is happening after break.