

December 3, 2019

Today is an A Day

Today is National Day of Giving

Attention all 6th graders interested in learning how to ski or snowboard or being part of the Ski and Snowboard Club, there will be a meeting, Thursday, Dec. 5th, in Mr. Rohlring's Room after announcements, All 6th Graders interested in Ski and Snowboard Club should meet in Mr. Rohlring's room this Thursday after announcements. There will be a meeting for 7th and 8th graders next week on Tuesday.

There is an 8th grade GSA meeting this morning in the Step Room. Any 8th grade student who is interested can join us after announcements if you are interested. You need to check in with your advisory teacher before you attend.

Attention all students in grades 5 through 8:

Sometime next week, your teachers will be offering you the chance to participate in the first level of our school spelling bee. You'll be asked to spell 21 words on your iPad. The top spellers for BR and the top spellers for CK will be invited to compete in the all-school spelling bee, which is held in our Step Room. The winners of those competitions will represent our schools at the regional spelling bee, with a chance to compete for the state and national championships.

So get your spelling pants on and get ready to compete next week!

Today's Menu Is:

- Beef hot dog served on a hot dog bun
- Baked Lays
- Baked Beans
- Fresh Fruit & Veggies
- Leafy Green Salad
- Diced Peaches

Science Olympiad will meet today after school in Mr. Ruel's room. We'll launch water rockets outside, so bring a coat!

The following students should come down to the art room to collect some art:

7th graders: Yousisif, Kiara I, Irma, Latrell, Owen L

6th graders: Josie G, Madehline, Emilie B, Rio H., Reece R., Anitya Dwa, Ariel, Alyssa V, Theadora,