Today is a B Day

Attention all students in grades 5 through 8:

Sometime next week, your teachers will be offering you the chance to participate in the first level of our school spelling bee. You'll be asked to spell 21 words on your iPad. The top spellers for BR and the top spellers for CK will be invited to compete in the all-school spelling bee. The winners of those competitions will represent our schools at the regional spelling bee.

So get your spelling pants on and get ready to compete next week!

Today is International day of the Ninja

Speaking of Ninjas, Any 6th grader who is interested in learning more about hanging out with you friends on Friday nights at Devil's Head, come to the Ski and Snowboard Club meeting Today, after announcements. It will be held in Mr. Rohlfing's room. There will be a meeting for 7th and 8th graders the next week.

Today's menu is

- Tangerine Chicken
- Brown Rice
- Oriental Vegetables
- Mandarin Orange
- Fresh Fruit & Veggies

Artists! The Spring Art Show Meeting will begin after announcements. Please come down to the art room ASAP

Come join us Monday, December 10th in Mr. Rogeberg's room after school until 4:40 for our first African American History Academic Challenge Meeting: This is a fun and challenging way for students to expand their knowledge of African American History in highly competitive local and national competitions. Students who participate in this club will meet one time per week after school.

- Students will be coached after school by Badger Ridge Staff
- Students receive a text to study African American History
- Students will compete in Verona, Dane County, and possibly Nationally
- Top teams will receive a cash stipend

See Ms. High or Mr. Rogeberg with further questions. See you Monday.

The 7th grade boys basketball team had a rematch with Monroe on Monday night. The A team started out the night going back and forth in the first half with a halftime score of 13-12. In the second half Monroe went on a run that Badger didn't have an answer for and Monroe came away with the win. Connor G led the way in scoring followed by Adam Z.

In the 2nd game of the night the B team came out slow and fell to a 17 to 10 deficit at the half. The B team turned up the defense in the 2nd half only allowing 7 points and made a comeback by outscoring Monroe 18 to 7 in the 2nd half. The final score was Badger Ridge 28 - Monroe 24. Ryan S had a personal season high with 12 points followed in scoring by Davian I and Everett H both with 6 points.

ATTENTION 8TH GRADE BASKETBALL TEAM MEMBERS:

Practice today is for B TEAMS ONLY.
