

March 15, 2019

Today is a B Day

Today's menu is:

- Cheese Pizza!
- Leafy Green Salad
- Diced Pear
- Fresh Fruit & Veggies
- Gripz Mini Chocolate Chip

Today is National Dress in Blue Day

Remember Monday is a late start

Hello Badger Ridge and Core Knowledge students and staff

Mrs. Ibarra's advisory class is having a clothing drive for their service learning project. We have informational posters hanging around the school. Bring in any clothes you might not wear anymore, that are in good condition. We have buckets in Airlock 1, and in the Badger ridge office. Bring in your donations by the end of March. Thank you!

---

ATTENTION: All 7th and 8th Grade Boys and Girls interested in Track and Field

The mandatory preseason organizational meeting will be held next Wednesday in the STEP Room after morning announcements. Bring a writing utensil AND your iPad. Athletes with questions or concerns should see Coach McCluskey.

---

Students: Help Us Get a Clean Playlist put together. Stop by the podium outside Mrs Grotsky's room and write down the title of songs/artists that you would like to hear.

Are you ready for March Madness? Get ready to fill out your NCAA bracket next week and compete against your teachers and classmates. Mr. Reinhart's advisory will be selling brackets to raise money for "No Child Hungry". Brackets will be on sale next week Monday and Tuesday before and after school in the commons. Check out the posters around the school for more information!

There is a mandatory Trees For Tomorrow Meeting on Thursday during Advisory in Mrs. Harrison's Room. Please Be there!!!

---

Hey Middle School! We are down to the FINAL 4 books in the March Madness of Books tournament!! Please come in to the LMC and fill out your picks! You have until the end of the day on Monday to vote for the FINAL 4 books!! See you in the LMC!

---

Student Council today after announcements room 201.