Today is a B Day

Today is Veteran's Day

Today's Menu is:

- Chicken Patty served on a Hamburger Bun
- Emoji Potatoes
- Leafy Green Salad
- Pineapple Tidbits
- Fresh Fruit & Veggies

WHAT/WHEN:

The advisory door decorating competition (sponsored by the Student Council) will commence on Monday, November 11.

- If your advisory is in a shared space such as the LMC, choose one door to decorate and run your plan by Lisa Miller
- If you don't have a door - email me and I will set you up with a door in need of adoption.

TIMELINE: You will be given 2 weeks to create your door.

THEME: Your choice of the following: Gratitude/Community/Kindness

CRITERIA:

Advisories will be scored on creativity, originality, and craftsmanship. You will be given a grade on a scale of 1-10 for each of these skills. If your advisory chooses to dress up illustrating your doors theme, you will be granted a bonus 5 points. The student council leadership team will be judging your spectacular doors.

REWARD: The winning advisories (1 per grade level) will receive an edible reward courtesy of Student Council.

Judging will take place during advisory on November 26th and winners will be announced during advisory on November 27th.

Good luck!

Thanks,

Student Council Leadership Team

There will be a 6th grade GSA meeting tomorrow- Tuesday, Nov. 12 in the Step Room during advisory time. Any sixth grade student who are interested is invited to join us..

Happy Birthday Ms. Tracy!!

8th grade boys basketball players should be dismissed from class today at 3:05 pm and meet in the commons area prior to getting on the bus for Stoughton.
