

November 20, 2019

Today is an A day

Today is National Educational Support Professional's Day

Attention all cross country runners, there will be an awards ceremony this Thursday during advisory in the step room.

Today's menu is:

- Pizza Bites served with Marinara Sauce
- Leafy Green Salad
- Fresh Fruit & Veggies
- Breadsticks (cole)

Happy Birthday, Ms. Ibarra! Feliz cumpleaños

Today is day 3 of Operation Be on Time! Which grade will win the ultimate prize of the golden clock?

The 7th grade boys basketball returned to action last night with a home game against McFarland. In the first game of the night the A team got out to an early lead and battled back and forth the whole game. The game was tied with 8 seconds left and when Juian M stole the ball and was fouled shooting. This led to a game winning free throw with 3 seconds left leading to a final score of 45 to 44. Offensive leaders were Brayden S and Julian M both finishing with 11 points. Defensive MVP goes to Sean I.

In the second game of the night the B team also battled back and forth with a tough McFarland team. The team made a late 2nd half comeback but ran out of time ending up with a loss of a final score of 46 to 47. The offensive leaders were Silas S with 20 points followed by Tawaun O with 14 and Cristian O with 12. Both teams return to action next Monday with a home game against Stoughton.

The 8th grade boys basketball teams dropped a pair of games last night to McFarland. The A team fell 46 to 20, but played extremely well against the most talented team they have seen all season. However, the shots were not falling for the Wildcats. Offensive player of the game was Kashden H who led the Wildcats with 9 points while defensive honors went to Gannon J. The B team fell behind early, but played the Spartans even for the rest of the game in a 43 to 31 loss. Offensive player of the game was Henry M who led the Wildcats with 15 points while defensive honors went to Ryan R. The Wildcats host Stoughton on Monday at Badger Ridge.