Attention student council members who have a permission slip for Culvers night, please hand in the permission slip to Ms. Hartjes today or this morning. Also anyone helping out on Wednesday night, there will be a very short meeting today in room 201, Ms. Hartjes' room, after announcements. We will be talking about the logistics for Culver Family night!

Attention all students at Badger Ridge and Core Knowledge, there is a family fundraiser at Culvers on Wednesday, November 6 from 5-8 pm- TONIGHT. All you have to do is ask parents or guardian to have dinner at Culvers (drive through or restaurant) and 10% of the profits will go to Badger Ridge and Core Knowledge. This will help fund our dances and prizes we want to offer for students. So let's eat out on Wednesday night at Culvers.

---

Attention Yearbook club members we will meet right after announcements with your Ipads in the Step Room tomorrow Thursday Nov 7th, again all yearbook club members meet in step room right after announcements tomorrow Thursday Nov 7th in advisory. We will be picking our cover and talking pictures!

6th graders please come to Mrs. Ibarra's room to get your sugar skulls during Advisory. Tezera C and Kalee T please come to see Ms. Ibarra.

The 7th grade boys basketball team started their season last night on the road at Monroe. In the first game of the night the A team started out slow but outscored Monroe 22-8 in the 2nd half to cruise to a 38-22 victory. The team was led in scoring by Julian M with 10 points followed by Brayden S with 7 points. Defensive MVP goes to Brayden S who led the team in steals.

In the second game of the night the B team started the game fast and never looked back getting out to a 31 to 4 lead at the half. The team continued great team defense in the 2nd half to finish the game with a final score of 53-18. The team was led in scoring by Elijah M with 14 points followed by Silas S with 13 and Kanye C with 12. Defensive MVP goes to Elijah M who secured the lane blocking most shots sent in his direction.

Both teams will be in action again on Thursday night when they play Savannah Oaks at the K-Wing Gym. T

The 8th grade boys basketball team split a pair of games last night in Monroe. The A team opened up a 16-12 halftime lead, but Monroe came out strong and built a 12 point lead late in the game. The Wildcats rallied to close within 6 at the end to suffer a 39-33 defeat. Amir T led the Wildcats with 10 points to earn offensive player of the game honors. Defensive player of the game was Conor G. The B team opened up an early lead and held off a furious Monroe rally. The Wildcats defeated Monroe 25-20. Justin H led the Wildcats with 7 points to earn offensive player of the game honors. Defensive player of the game was Jack M. The Wildcats host cross town rival Savanna Oaks tomorrow night.
